ABSTRACT

American Indian tribes, bands, or groups are listed for which the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) has definite responsibility. In addition, those that have been terminated from BIA services in recent years, and those recognized only for claims purposes, have been listed. Certain other categories are also shown. The basic listing is by state. Following the name of the state, which is given in alphabetical order, is the BIA agency that has immediate jurisdiction over Indian, Eskimo, or Aleut groups with its address. The BIA Area Office to which the agency reports is indicated. The tribes under the particular agency follow. Listed next are tribes in that state that do not receive BIA services. Throughout the booklet, a code number follows the name of each Indian group which indicates the status of each as of June 1972. The addresses of all of the Area Offices in the BIA are listed at the back of the booklet. (FF)

Preface

In his message on Indian Affairs to the Congress July 8, 1970, President Nixon said:

"The first and most basic question that must be answered with respect to Indian policy concerns the historic and legal relationship between the Federal Government and Indian communities."

This booklet helps achieve the objective emphasized by President Nixon.

Indian groups in this listing include American Indians, Aleuts, and Eskimos. Some receive Bureau of Indian Affairs services because of treaties, Congressional acts, Executive Orders, and Executive Agreements. Some have had Bureau of Indian Affairs services terminated by specific statute. Bureau of Indian Affairs benefits have never been extended to others.

Nevertheless, the Bureau of Indian Affairs has found itself with varying degrees of activities in all three areas. In the latter two, these activities may be completing the final stages of termination of Federal trust relationship over a tribe's land, disposing of money awarded by the Indian Claims Commission to satisfy a claim against the Government won by the tribe involving lands taken from the group in the past, or simply answering inquiries from certain interested individuals about Indians.

While this booklet does not include the names of all Indian tribes, bands, or groups, it does list all of those for which the Bureau of Indian Affairs has definite responsibility. In addition, those that have been terminated from Bureau of Indian Affairs services in recent years, and those recognized only for claims purposes, have been listed. Certain other categories are also shown.

LOUIS R. BRUCE
Commissioner of Indian Affairs

AMERICAN INDIANS AND THEIR FEDERAL RELATIONSHIP

Plus a Partial Listing of Other United States Indian Groups

This booklet lists all American Indian tribes, Eskimo, and Aleut groups, for which the Bureau of Indian Affairs has definite responsibility. It also includes those tribes, bands, and groups that have been terminated from Bureau of Indian Affairs services in recent years, and those recognized only for purposes of settling claims against the U.S. Government, such as those involving inadequate compensation for land taken in the past. In addition, Indian groups in certain other categories are also listed.

The basic listing is by State. Following the name of the State, which is given in alphabetical order, is the Bureau of Indian Affairs office that has immediate jurisdiction over Indian, Eskimo, or Aleut groups with its address. The tribes under it follow.

Next are tribes that do not receive Bureau of Indian Affairs services.

The Bureau of Indian Affairs Area Office is the highest ranking field office in the Bureau structure. Next in order is generally the Bureau of Indian Affairs Agency that reports to it. It is usually located on the reservation it serves.

In the case of Agencies and other Bureau offices of somewhat similar rank, the Area Office to which they report is indicated, to the right, in parentheses. The addresses of all of the Area Offices in the Bureau are listed at the back of the booklet.

Throughout the booklet a code number follows the name of each Indian group. It indicates the status of each as of June 1972. However, changes may occur at any time. Here is what each number means:

1. Indian or Alaska Native organizations whose constitutions are approved by the Secretary of the Interior under Federal statutory authority of the Indian Reorganization Act; Oklahoma Indian Welfare Act; or Alaska Native Act.

2. Indian or Alaska Native organizations whose constitutions are approved by the Secretary of the Interior or his designated representative under authority other than the Indian Reorganization Act; Oklahoma Indian Welfare Act; or Alaska Native Act.

3. Indian organizations without written governing documents that are served by the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

4. Public Domain allotments. Indian individuals who reside on these lands receive Bureau of Indian Affairs services on the basis of the Secretary of the Interior's responsibility over their land.

5. Indian groups that receive assistance from the Bureau only in matters relating to the settlement of claims against the U.S. Government, such as those involving inadequate compensation for land taken in the past.

6. Indian groups no longer entitled to Bureau of Indian Affairs services because of specific statutes. (Terminated groups.)

7. Others. Groups that have never received Bureau of Indian Affairs services.

8. Indian groups that do not fit into any of the above classifications.

Map code numbers preceding the names of some of the groups listed in this booklet may be used in conjunction with a map which shows the location of the Indian groups. Such map entitled "Indian Lands and Related Facilities, 1971, General," is available from the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D.C. 20242, price 35 cents.

Map code numbers are assigned to State reservations (Number 1-26), Indian groups without trust land (Number 30-37) and terminated tribes and groups (Number 80-91).

No code location numbers have been assigned to groups on Federal trust lands since these are generally recognizable by inspection of the map itself.
